LOCATION

Due to its location and the warm Mediterranean climate of the Aegean coast, Bodrum is a very popular resort with both international tourists and Turkish holiday makers. Bodrum offers ideal conditions for wind surfing, sailing and other water sports. Bodrum Castle (Bodrum Kalesi) is one of the many highlights of the town and was built by the Knights Hospitaller in 1402 as the Castle of St. Peter or Petronium. Thanks to strict guidelines, building construction in Bodrum is limited to two storeys, which makes the city stand out from other tourist destinations in Turkey. The Greek island Kos is just a half hour away by boat.
